

Somersetshire Coal Canal Society

Role Description – Vice Chair

The duties of the vice chair include the following:

- To provide advice and assistance to the Chair
- To act for the Chair when the Chair is not available
- To represent the organisation at functions and meetings, and to act as a spokesperson, when the Chair is not available
- To develop and lead projects that will benefit the aims of the Society
- To bringing impartiality and objectivity to decision-making